CALLING AND MINISTRY STUDIES FOR STUDENTS

Calling and Ministry Studies for Students is designed to assist high school and College aged students to identify, affirm, and define their calling. The program consists of four monthly seminars with four phases: Explore, Equip, Engage, and Empower. This study will engage the younger generation, not only to identify the call of God, but also to start preparation in developing a healthy self-awareness while building a strong foundation for successful vocational and credentialed ministry in the Church of God.

To get started, complete this application with the help of your pastor and return it to your Church of God state/regional office.

PERSONAL COMMITMENT TO THE CHURCH OF GOD

I hereby agree that the information I have included in this application–Section 1 is true to the best of my knowledge. If I have overlooked any questions, or failed to complete any part of the application, I understand the review process of my application may be delayed. (All records will be held in the strictest confidence as with all other materials submitted to the Church God State/Regional Office and Division of Education.)

Because the CAMS for Students program exists to teach, train, and send Holy Spirit empowered Christians into all the world, we expect students to have a foundation of Christian behavior established in their lives and affirmed by the local church leadership prior to their initial enrollment. Students are required to uphold the doctrine, teachings, faith, and standard of the Church of God.

Therefore, I affirm my personal belief in the doctrine contained in the Declaration of Faith and elsewhere in the current Church of God Book of Discipline, Church Order, and Governance of the Minutes. I hereby pledge allegiance to this standard and have dedicated my life to Jesus Christ.
